

Endeavour Tavern

WA's Best Beer Garden

HIRING a food and beverage attendant available before the end of September!

The Endeavour Tavern is located in Lancelin W.A, about 100km north of Perth northern suburbs, situated right on a pristine bit of beach front. With the best beer garden in WA. It's an amazing pub to work and save heaps of money.

We are currently looking for one person to join our team as a Food and Beverage Attendant. The general duties performed with this role will include preparing and dispensing beverages, providing the link between our kitchen and the customer and providing fantastic customer service to our customer base.

We are looking for an individual that, ideally, has the following:

- Great customer service skills with a good work ethic, gained through experience working in the hospitality industry.
- Reliable and flexible to work a variety of hours including night and weekend work.
- A current WA RSA certificate and a COVID-19 Hygiene certificate or willing to obtain them prior to start
- Thriving in a fast-paced environment but can find something to do when quieter

References from previous and actual workers available.

Onsite discounted accommodation available to the right applicant. Own room in a shared house.

We offer award rates for the role. Minimum 3 months stay. 30+ hours a week, and more over the school holidays. If you don't have a car, no stress everything is available in town. You must be in Western Australia to apply for this position.
